

Beer Skins Golf

Royal Mitchell CSU

1. To be eligible to play each player must contribute to the beer skin kitty.
2. All players must receive a beer before the first hole and must have opened and sampled the beer before teeing off.
3. To win a beer skin a player must be in the hole with the lowest number of shots. If two or more players tie for lowest score the beer skin jackpots (cumulatively) to the next whole.
4. Any player winning one or more beer skin must immediately skull any currently open beer before teeing off at the next whole
5. Players who wins beer skins may choose to tee off last (to enable ample beer skin consumption and appreciation time)
6. For each hole there will be at least 1 beer available to win.
7. An extra beer is awarded for any hole-in-one
8. Any of the original rules of golf should apply with the addition that any stroke penalty awarded must be accompanied by an equal number of drinks of beer.
9. Any of the original rules of golf can be overruled at any time by a majority vote of other players.
10. Any innocent (student, academic, small child, etc) struck by a beer skin player's ball must be immediately (or as soon as consciousness returns) offered a free beer as compensation.
11. any player who shows excessive golf skills may be forced to skull a beer by unanimous vote of the other players.